Dianah Bwengye

Development Communications · Design · Documentation
Kampala, Uganda · +256 (0)70 120 7126 · bwengye5@gmail.com · dianalala.github.io

PROFILE

Development communications professional with 15 years of experience creating reports, campaigns, publications, digital content and learning materials for NGOs, donors and government partners. Combines audience research, clear writing and professional design to make complex programme information accessible and engaging.

EXPERIENCE

Co-Founder & Creative Lead, Urithi Studio, Kampala | Mar 2021 – present

- Leads social and behaviour change communication (SBCC) strategies and materials for development clients, from audience research to final product.
- Conducts focus groups, interviews, surveys and pre-tests to understand target audiences and refine messages.
- Enabel VIMBA "Ni Skill Yo!": pre-tested and adapted a youth campaign, game, information map, role-model flipbooks, soft-skills manual and radio scripts for Arua, Fort Portal, Kasese and Hoima; authored and designed the comprehensive report.
- Gender-focused projects: ERI manual adaptation for Horizont3000; Gender & Nutrition game for GADC.

Design Consultant, Brand & Digital Content, KTA Advocates | 2025 – present

- Social media content, firm profile, proposals and bids, in-house documentation, infographics, communications strategy materials, concept notes and X Spaces preparation.

Innovation & Documentation Officer, Light for the World, Kampala | Jul 2021 – Jun 2023

- Planned and led co-creation sessions; documented innovation projects and wrote reports, including the SPARK Social Innovation Report.
- Coordinated stakeholders and produced accessible digital and print documents, including accessible PDFs.
- Developed and facilitated a master class for farmers with disabilities in Beira, Mozambique.

Facilitator & Designer, Mango Tree, Kampala | May 2010 – Jun 2021

- Facilitated co-creation workshops and turned research into communication products and reports for international clients: Mercy Corps, FAO Zambia, Baylor Botswana, Obulamu, 100weeks, ICAN.

Selected communications and publication consultancies | 2018 – present

- Chapter 4 Uganda (2019–2023): advocacy publications explaining legal and social issues to diverse audiences.
- Shona (2021–2023): WaSAP logo and brand guidelines, pitch decks, reports, flyers, banners and forms.
- Light for the World Austria (2023–2025): accessible print and digital materials and training games.
- London School of Economics (2021), ifa (2022), Akina Mama wa Afrika (2024): comic books communicating research and policy issues.
- FiberFoods (2020–2021): brand identity and packaging. Butterflyworks (2021): farmer poster and booklet. Borderland Arts and 32°East KLA ART18: exhibition catalogues and promotional materials.

EDUCATION

Bachelor's Degree in Art & Industrial Design, Kyambogo University | 2007 – 2010
Certificate, Insights for Innovation, IDEO (online) | 2022

SKILLS & TOOLS

- Writing and documentation: reports, case stories, content for print, web and social media
- SBCC strategy, audience research, pre-testing and message development
- Brand guidelines, data visualisation and infographics, accessible documents
- Adobe InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop, Acrobat; Figma; Canva; MS Word, Excel, PowerPoint
- Workshop, training and event facilitation

PRESS, EXHIBITIONS & ILLUSTRATION CREDITS

- Profiled in The Observer (Uganda): "Dianah Bwengye leaves indelible mark through art" by Frank Kisakye, June 2022
- Interviewed on the Design Hustle podcast, Start Journal: "An illustration can be really powerful in communication", October 2021
- Featured in Language of Margins (2026): essay "Pixels of Protest" by Gloria Kiconco, on digital art in Uganda
- Illustrator, Human Rights Watch: "Ugandan Mothers Stand by Their LGBT Children", May 2025
- Illustrator, Start Journal: "What It Is", a poetry series by Arinda Daphine, July 2019
- Exhibited Looking Within, Annual Njabala Exhibition, Obulo Bwaffe Festival, Kampala, March 2025
- Exhibited at the Children's Book Illustrators' Exhibition, Design Hub Kampala, August 2017, as one of nine illustrators of 50 Mango Tree Literacy Lab books

REFEREES

Priscilla Apio, Urithi Studio, +256 782 468111
Clare Byarugaba, Chapter 4 Uganda, +256 774 068663